Technology Instruction and Résumé Help (FREE)

30-minute, one-on-one instruction sessions are available for assistance with introductory software, creating email accounts, downloading eBooks and eAudiobooks, résumé development, online job applications, and more.

Registration is required for all sessions. To register for a session at the Downtown Library, call (928) 213-2331 or stop by the Information Desk. To register for a session at the East Flagstaff Community Library (EFCL), call (928) 213-2348.

Database Instruction (FREE)

One-on-one or group instruction is available on the Foundation Directory Online database, which catalogs information on thousands of foundations and available grants to aid organizations in locating potential funding sources.

Group instruction for schools or teachers is available on the various instructional databases available through the Library, including the GALE Student Resources in Context, Learning Express Library, and Peterson's Test and Career Prep.
