

HOPE HORIZONS NAVIGATING RECOVERY FOR ARIZONA FAMILIES

Regional Institutes

Call for Workshops

The AHCCCS Women's Services Coordinator and Prevent Child Abuse Arizona invite workshop proposals for two upcoming regional institutes for professionals working directly with parents and families. This year we will feature workshops focused on "how to do the things": practical skills, tools, and strategies to meet the needs of infants who are substance exposed and their parents as they navigate SUD treatment and recovery. We are specifically interested in proposals that focus on the intersections of brain development, supporting relationships, and tools to soothe and support the parent-child relationship.
